TWELVE YEARS TOGETHER

Atwood Grade and High Schools
FIRST ROW: John Swartz, Judy Stephenson, Sue Wilcoxen, Don Murray.
SECOND ROW: John Mosbarger, Mickey Harshbarger, Bill Austin, Skip Romine.

Hammond Grade and Atwood High Schools.
FIRST ROW: Inez Stanley, Judy Eskridge.
SECOND ROW: Jim Barcus, Jerry Patrick, Larry Sawyer.

CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1954, AHS opened its doors to twenty-one starry-eyed giggly freshman girls and thirty-four shy bewildered boys. The "green" freshmen survived the initiation ceremonies which made them officially a part of AHS.

Len Baer was elected their freshman president, while Judy Eskridge served as vice-president, and Sharon Eaton, secretary-treasurer. Ronald Day and Velma Crowe were AT-TO-HI reporters. Sue Chenoweth was elected cheerleader. Larry West and Sharon Barkley represented the freshman class in student council. Judy Eskridge was chosen freshman homecoming attendant.

That year they lost Peggy Busch, who moved to Idaho Falls, Idaho; Boyd Edwards to Louisville, Kentucky; James Hershback to Marion, Indiana; Jane Gentry and Bill Griffith to Arthur; Larry Lynch to Gibson City; Dean Smith to Decatur; and Sheila Stillabower and Ronald McDonald, who dropped out.

They gained Ruth Amick from Washington, Indiana; Martha Provine from Sumner; Leland Ellis from Thomasboro; David Batchelder from Decatur; and James Upright from Newman.

The freshmen were hosts to the seniors at a "Hit Parade" program at the freshman return party.

Mrs. Louise Bean and Mrs. Rozanna Rayburn served as advisors.

September, 1955, soon rolled around making the once freshmen, sophomores who totaled forty-seven.

That year they lost Sharon Barkley, who moved to New York; Sharon Eaton to Mt. Zion; Timmy Hilton to Tuscola; and Martha Provine to Tolono.

They were blessed with the appearance of four additions, Boyd Edwards, who moved back from Louisville, Kentucky; Rheadon Earley from Salem, Indiana; Dewain High from Decatur; and Juda Brown from Red Boiling Springs, Tennessee.

Skip Romine was elected president; Don Murray, vice-president; Beverly Tomey, secretary; and Sue Chenoweth, treasurer. Larry West and Judy Eskridge were student council representatives. Anita Crist, Sue Chenoweth, and Judy Eskridge were elected cheerleaders. Rheadon Earley was sophomore homecoming attendant. Velma Crowe was AT-TO-HI representative. Ruth Kamm was crowned G.A.A. Sweetheart Queen, with Rheadon Earley sophomore attendant. Len Baer and Juda Brown were elected most courteous.

Mr. Kenneth Darner and Mr. T. K. Lile served as class advisors.

Bill Austin was the only sophomore on the varsity football team which shared the championship of Okaw Valley with Arcola. David Behrend broke the shot put record of 41 feet 4 1/2 inches with a throw of 41 feet 9 1/2 inches, in the Okaw Valley Fresh-Soph Conference track meet at Monticello.

Juniors entering AHS numbered forty-nine. Ronald Wallace was elected president their junior year; Larry Sawyer, vice-president; Len Baer, treasurer; and Rheadon Earley, secretary. Larry West and Beverly Tomey were chosen student council representatives. Mrs. Irene Davenport and Mr. Les Gadbury were class advisors.

New juniors entering during the year were Martha Provine from Tolono; Bonnie Day, who attended briefly and moved to Shumway; Sharon Day from Decatur; and Mary McElhaney, who finished her junior year and moved to Galatia.

Skip Romine and Beverly Tomey played lead roles in the junior class play, "Seventeen." The American Legion chose Juda Brown to attend Girls' State and Ronald Day to attend Boys' State. Judy Eskridge, Anita Crist, Beverly Tomey and Sue Chenoweth were elected varsity cheerleaders. Betty Yoachum played the Princess in "Many Moons," the drama class play. Larry West and Bill Austin were junior winning soloists in the state music contest. Judy Eskridge and Bill Austin were junior outstanding ensemble entrants. Sue Chenoweth was junior homecoming attendant. Larry Sawyer won the free-throw trophy for the second time.

Allerton Park was the scene of the prom with "Stairway to the Stars" as its theme on March 29.

The track team placed second in the Okaw Valley Conference meet. Roy Dallas tied for third in high hurdles, for first in high jump, and for fourth in pole vault. Dave Behrend placed third in shot put, throwing 44 feet 11 inches. Larry West placed fifth in the mile.

That year they lost James Bragg.

Seniors numbered forty-three. They were seeking excitement from freshmen during initiation week. Ruth Amick was chairman of the day committee and David Behrend, night committee.

Class officers were Larry Sawyer, president; Ronald Day, vice-president; Ruth Amick, secretary; and Inez Stanley, treasurer. Miss Lois Shonkwiler and Mr. Otto Ariens were class advisors.

Sue Chenoweth, four-year cheerleader; Anita Crist and Judy Eskridge, three-year cheerleaders; and Beverly Tomey, two-year cheerleader, served as varsity cheerleaders.

Judy Brown was crowned queen of the Homecoming by King David Behrend, Sue Chenoweth and Larry Sawyer were grand march leaders. Ruth Hatchel was senior attendant.

Ruth Hatchel, with escort Larry Sawyer, placed third in the Okaw Valley queen contest in Arcola. Ruth Amick represented Atwood in "Miss Mistletoe Dance" held in Newman.

Velma Crowe served as production editor for the AT-TO-HI, while Galene Rivers served as editorial editor. Sue Chenoweth was crowned queen of the G.A.A. Sweetheart Dance by reigning queen Ruth Kamm and escorted by King Larry West.

Ronald Day and Larry West were semi-finalists for the Illinois Commission Scholastic Association scholarship tests taken in Champaign and Decatur.

They lost Dick Day, who moved to Bement; Eugene Harrison, Jerrol Jurgens, Charles Lowery and Darrell Parks, who dropped out.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"He said not to enter the door - I'm not."

"Don't call me Ilene."

"Why don't you shut up!"

TURN BACK THE CLOCK

In a very brief Prolog, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill are awaiting up for their children, worried and concerned. Mr. Hill is growing angry, harping on the so-called "Irresponsibilities" of this younger generation. He is reminded of some of his own youthful ambitions and foibles; and the clock is turned back to their Senior year, 1928. The play proper is a gleeful glimpse into those not-so-dead days in which parents and children behaved in almost exactly the same way that they behave today.

The youngsters' problems are eternal problems--of love and ambition and decision, passing enthusiasms and fads.

"Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

"OUR TOWN"

"Our Town" tells the history of the town, Grover's Corners, N. H., and something of the character of its citizens as shown in the lives of the Gibbs and Webb families.

This is done by presenting first a typical day in the lives of the Webbs and Gibbs families. Then the love affair and wedding of Emily Webb and George Gibbs is shown. Finally comes the scene in the cemetery where many of the townspeople now are and to which comes Emily WebbGibbs who slowly finds the meaning of her life and her future.

This play is usually given without the usual stage props.

"Could you just give me a hint?"

The Webb Family
"Now eat your breakfast."

The Gibbs Family
"But, Ma!"

DRAMA PLAY

"WINNIE-THE-POOH"

The Drama class presented "Winnie-the-Pooh" as their children's play. A. A. Milne originally told the stories about Winnie-the-Pooh for his little son, Christopher Robin. Christopher Robin liked to be one of the characters in the stories his father told.
